

The purpose of Cumberland Valley Men of Promise is to encourage men and strengthen them in their walk with the Lord Jesus.

As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.

-Proverbs 27:17

About CVMOP

Cumberland Valley Men of Promise is a non-denominational organization that strives to meet the unique needs of men. Over the years we have tackled subjects such as "Becoming a Man of Honor", "Living as a Man of Honor", and "What Men Do". Our events emphasize the importance of maintaining a healthy balance between family, church and recreation. Our goal is to encourage men in their spiritual walk with Jesus, challenging them to be engaged as husbands and fathers in the home and as spiritual leaders in their church.

2016 Men's Conference

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Byron Gurnee

Pastor & Certified Firearms Instructor

Byron Gurnee is a pastor currently finishing up his 11th year at his current charge in Northwestern Pennsylvania. He received his Bachelors degree from Allegheny Wesleyan College and his graduate degree from Indiana Wesleyan University. He is the owner of an Electrical and Heating business, a family man, and an avid hunter. He has hunted for 30 years all over the United States, Canada and Alaska. He has taken many whitetails in Ohio and Pennsylvania, including 22 bucks of which 12 were taken with a bow, as well as a 360" Boone and Crocket Elk in Utah. He has been a Lifetime member of the National Rifle Association since 1995, a member of the International Cartridge Collecting Association since 2000, an NRA Instructor, a Certified Concealed Weapons Instructor for many states, and a Utah Bureau of Criminal Investigation Concealed Carry Instructor. He is a member of the Albion Area Sportsman's Club, and he is actively involved in developing Christian Hunting Fellowships and Mentoring Youth Hunting activities. In his spare time, he enjoys collecting ammunition cartridges in which he has over 1500 different calibers, and spending time with his 4 children. Most important to him is his faith in Christ!

Leo Eby

of Eby's Sawmill

Leo operates a family sawmill in Beans Cove, PA. They emphasize customer service as evidenced by their motto, "For the Glory of God and the Benefit of our Fellow Man". He and his wife have 3 sons and 5 daughters (and one daughter-in-law). They are members of the Fourth Avenue Mennonite Church. Their business has allowed some family members to spend time in relief and mission efforts all around the world. As a hobby, Leo likes to work with his draft horses.

Gene Riffey

of South Cumberland A/G

Gene Riffey has been pastor of the South Cumberland Assembly of God since October of 2003, and before that, he was at Central Assembly of God for 20 Years. He obtained his ministerial credentials through the Global University Berean School of the Bible, and he is a Veteran of the USNR.
